What's a PTA?

A Parent Teacher Association (PTA)

'is an organisation of parents and staff'

It's purpose is to create closer links between home and school. Creating opportunities for parents, staff and pupils to come together.

All families of pupils at Wouldham All Saints Primary School automatically become members of the PTA.

The aims of our PTA – The Friends

- To organise events within and around school. Creating fun and fulfilling experiences.
- To raise funds to support the school in delivering a great school journey for the children.
- To develop and maintain the school's relationship with the local community
- Creates fantastic collaboration and social interaction between parents and school staff in the support and delivery of school events

Who can join the PTA?

Anyone who wants to contribute to the school - teacher, parent, childminders, local community resident, can join as a member or go on to stand for committee.
